 Mette Nielsen
 Alan Keenan
 Stephen Oola
 Fionnuala Ní Aoláin
 Mohamed Sesay
 Eric Wiebelhaus-Brahm

Chair: Kirsten Ainley

The objective of the session is to discuss the rationale for the project and the justice/conflict/development nexus – historical connections and experiences of countries dealing with conflict, development, justice challenges in the last 20-30 years (beyond our case study countries), and more broadly the political economy of transitional justice. All speakers to prepare maximum 6 minutes of opening remarks to leave time for discussion. Remarks might include comments on which aspects of the project the speaker is particularly interested in/ works on.

10.30-11.00 Coffee

11.00-12.30 Session 3: The Four Cases

Speakers:

 Josephine Ahikire (Uganda)
 Mark Kersten (Uganda)
 Mario Gomez (Sri Lanka)
 Rebekka Friedman (Sri Lanka)

Chair: Chandra Sriram

The objective of the session is to introduce the four countries of study and to identify the big picture similarities and distinctions between cases, e.g. modalities of conflict termination (or not); modalities of justice (or not); development challenges. All speakers to prepare maximum 6 minutes of opening remarks to leave time for discussion. As there are two speakers for each case, please coordinate your remarks to ensure you don't overlap. Remarks might include descriptions of relevant projects undertaken by civil society organisations.
